

Leading with Emotional Effectiveness Workshop

“What does it cost you when your employees are in survival mode rather than thrive mode?”

DID YOU KNOW:

- Organizations that spend more than 31% of their training budgets on leadership development are 12% more likely to report increased revenue
- There is a 31% gap in leadership development effectiveness between organizations where Emotional Intelligence (EI) is valued, versus those in which it is not.

BENEFITS IN INVESTING IN YOURSELF

1. Develop skills to be a more emotionally effective leader
2. Learn strategies to avoid conflict and increase team dynamics
3. Establish techniques to instill greater respect from team members
4. Create an action plan to increase your overall leadership effectiveness
