As president of Marshall Connects, Linda Marshall is an entrepreneur, author, motivational speaker, television host, and thought leader in emotional intelligence. She brings more than 35 years of experience working with and educating teams to strive for excellence and reach their potential.

Linda's debut book, 'Giving Back, How to Find Your Personal Joy and Make a Difference to Others', was designed to offer continued personal growth; something she's continued within her second book, "The Power of Emotion: A Practical Guide to Making The Most of Your Emotional Intelligence."

As a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers (CAPS), certified as Emotional Intelligence (EQ-i) Trainer, certified Personality Dimensions® facilitator, she brings her on-the-ground experience to help businesses and individuals succeed in developing and maintaining strong leadership and team dynamics. Her accreditation in EQ-i 2.0 and EQ 360 facilitation is an internationally recognized talent assessment, communication and change management tool.

Linda offers a wealth of workshops and consulting services and has developed strengths in corporate strategy, team building, board development, and business planning, with demonstrated success in the management of complex, multisite operations. She is an expert in leveraging her strengths as a connector, collaborator, and in setting and achieving goals in often challenging, fast-paced environments.

"I have had the opportunity to work with and meet many great, influential community leaders ... Linda Marshall truly stands out above many of them."
